We, the undersigned, and the institutions we represent, express our grave concern about recent events in the Czech Republic and Romania to weaken institutions dedicated to the investigation and exposure of crimes of communism, namely The Institute for the Study of Totalitarian Regimes and The Institute for the Investigation of Communist Crimes and the Memory of Romanian Exile. We believe these institutions and their activities must be strengthened and supported to insure that the crimes of communism are condemned and their perpetrators brought to justice. These institutions are essential to draw the lessons necessary to prevent similar or new totalitarian regimes in the future.

We also regarded it utterly important to raise the awareness and knowledge about the atrocities that took place in the name of communism in Europe, as well as those still taking place in countries where communism is at large.
